Michael Rosenlew becomes Managing Director of IK Investment Partners AB

Michael Rosenlew has been appointed new Managing Director of IK Investment Partners AB in Sweden as of 1 July 2009.

Michael Rosenlew has been responsible for IK's Finnish investments since 1993. In 2002 he was appointed as one of the Managing Partners of IK Investment Partners Group and last year Deputy Chairman for IK Investment Partners AB. He will be replacing Gustav Öhman who for family reasons has chosen to leave IK later this year.

"We would like to thank Gustav for all his commitment and support since IK began its operations 20 years ago. We wish him all the best for the future," says Björn Savén, Executive Chairman.

IK Investment Partners Group will continue to be managed by Björn Savén, Executive Chairman, together with Michael Rosenlew and the other two Managing Partners; Detlef Dinsel and Christopher Masek.

Michael Rosenlew holds a M. Sc Business and Economics from the Swedish School of Business and Economics in Helsinki. Prior to joining IK in 1993, he worked for Amer and Lundia.
