IK Partners divests Yellow Hive to a newly established continuation fund

Press Release

Friday, 26 April 2024

IK Partners (“IK”) is pleased to announce that the IK Small Cap II (“IK SC II”) Fund has successfully closed its divestment of Yellow Hive (“the Company”), to a newly formed fund vehicle IK Strategic Opportunities I (“IK SO I”) Fund. Representing IK’s first continuation fund, the IK SO I Fund will be managed by IK and the transaction was led by TPG GP Solutions, AlpInvest and Pantheon. This transaction will allow IK, as well as the Yellow Hive founders and management team, to continue supporting the business over its next ownership cycle, with the benefit of fresh capital to execute on an attractive pipeline of opportunities.

Founded in 2011, Yellow Hive (formerly You Sure) is a leading Dutch insurance distribution platform with active broker and managing general agent capabilities, serving both small and medium-sized enterprises and consumers. Since IK’s investment in November 2020, the Company has grown considerably, driven by strong organic growth and a track record of accretive M&A. Today, Yellow Hive covers all common and select specialist risks, with access to both the Dutch and International insurance markets.

The sale marks another successful exit from the IK SC II Fund, its ninth realisation and provides investors with liquidity at an attractive return or the option to roll into the new vehicle to participate in Yellow Hive’s future growth.

Following a competitive auction process, IK SO I Fund closed at €505 million of new capital commitments to fund the purchase of Yellow Hive from IK SC II Fund, including follow-on capital to support the continued growth of the Company. TPG GP Solutions, AlpInvest and Pantheon acted as co-lead investors for the transaction, alongside a number of existing IK SC II Fund investors who will also invest in IK SO I Fund.

Ger Knikman, CEO of Yellow Hive, said: “IK has been a great partner over the last few years, supporting us in the successful execution of our ambitious strategy. Yellow Hive’s integrated platform has a strong tailwind and we wanted to continue to benefit from further consolidation of the market. The new commitment from IK SO I Fund will allow us to further strengthen the business both in the Netherlands and outside.”

Sander van Vreumingen, Partner at IK and Advisor to the IK SC II and IK SO I funds, said: “Yellow Hive has grown substantially over the past few years. This has been achieved both organically and through the execution of a selective M&A strategy, transforming the Company into one of the top 10 insurance distribution platforms in the Netherlands. By divesting the Company from the IK SC II Fund and reinvesting from the newly formed IK SO I Fund, the team at IK will be able to offer further support to accomplish the full potential plan, which includes expanding internationally and continuing to collaborate with a successful and ambitious team. During the exit process, we experienced strong demand for IK SO I Fund which underpins the quality of the Company.”
